Documents Required for NEET Counselling: Overview of the NEET UG Counseling Process

NEET UG Exam

The National Testing Agency (NTA) administers the NEET UG, a nationwide admission test. In India, it serves as the main entrance examination for undergraduate programs in dentistry (BDS) and medicine (MBBS).

Registration for NEET 2023 Counseling

Documents required for NEET counselling, the NEET counseling process begins. The following are the steps:

- ▶ Candidates must log in and choose "Candidate login" on the MCC website.
- ▶ Next, input the password and roll number.
- ▶ Candidates must now provide their Name, Roll Number, Registration Number, Mother's Name, and Contact information once the page has been forwarded to a new page.
- ▶ 'Submit' should be clicked.

Fee Payment for NEET 2022 Counseling

The applicants can move on with paying their fees once they have successfully enrolled and have the necessary Documents required for NEET counselling. Consequently, the specific charge for each institution is as follows:

Institution Type	Category	Security Fee (Refundable)	Counseling Fee (Non-Refundable)
AIQ/ Central Universities	Unreserved	INR 1,000	INR 10,000
	SC/ST/OBC/PWD	INR 500	INR 5,000
Deemed Universities	All Categories	INR 5,000	INR 2,00,000

Results Announcement

The NTA announces the NEET results following the Documents required for NEET counselling, often within a month. Candidates can view their scores and rankings on the official website, where the results are usually posted.

Merit list

An All India Merit List and State Merit Lists are usually created based on the NEET UG results. The candidate's rank is usually determined by the merit lists, which are normally based on the candidate's NEET score.

Registration and Choice Filling

Candidates who satisfy the requirements for NEET UG must register for counseling. Depending on their rank and category, they must fill out a list of the colleges and courses they choose.

Document Verification

Candidates must appear at the authorized counseling facilities for Documents required for NEET counselling after selecting their options. They must have their original paperwork on hand for verification, including mark sheets, NEET UG scorecards, identity documents, etc.

Seat Allocation

When allocating seats in colleges, the counseling authority takes into account the merit rank, the choices made by the candidates, and the availability of seats. The method for allocating seats is usually centralized online.

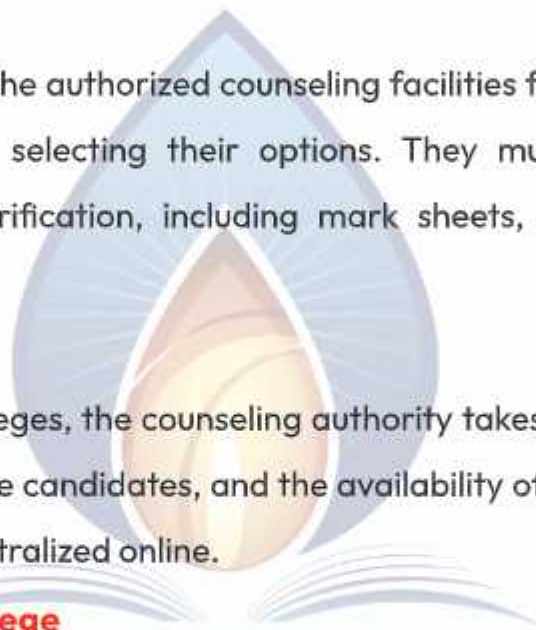

Reporting to provided College

Candidates who receive seats must arrive at their designated institutions within the stipulated time frame. They need to finish the entry requirements, pay the admission costs, and turn in the needed paperwork.

Second and Mop-Up Rounds

If any seats remain open following the first round of counseling, second and mop-up rounds are usually held to fill those openings. Although the procedure is identical to the first round, there might not be as many options.

The NEET UG counseling procedure may differ somewhat based on the state and participating universities, it is vital to remember. For accurate and current information, candidates are usually urged to consult the official counseling websites and announcements.

Ans. The NEET cutoff scores for MBBS applicants fluctuate from year to year and are even based on the category to which you belong. If you fall into the general category, the minimum NEET score required for MBBS in 2022 was 550 out of 720.

Q4. What is the time gap between counseling and NEET results?

Ans. If you are usually given a college in the first round itself, you will have a total of 15-20 days after the NEET result announcement to apply for admission. The authorities have established a schedule for the subsequent rounds. Overall, it takes 1 to 1.5 months to complete India quota counseling.

Q5. Is NEET Counseling a fee-based service?

Ans. To participate in All India Quota counseling and Central University counseling, unreserved applicants must pay a non-refundable registration fee of INR 1,000 (INR 500 for SC/ST/OBC/PH candidates).
